NOMINATIONS FOR UM ALUMNI
'AWARD OF EXCELLENCE' SOUGHT

MISSOULA--

Nominations are being accepted by the University of Montana Alumni Association for the Alumni Award of Excellence. The $250 award is presented annually to one male and one female UM student who have excelled beyond their academic pursuits and whose achievements are a credit to the student body, the University and the state.

The 1972 recipients of the award, which was established last year by the UM Alumni Association, were Myrtle Rae Wilson, Great Falls, and Gregory A. Beck, Libby.

Nominees must have a minimum 2.0 ("C") grade point average and be enrolled as full-time students at the University.

"Nominations, which will be accepted from all sources, must include each nominee's qualifications," George Oechsli, Alumni Association executive director, said.

Names of students being nominated and their qualifications should be sent to the UM Alumni Association, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801.
